Goals for a Godly Life – part 2

Colossians 1:21-23a At one time you were separated from God. You were his enemies in your minds, and the evil things you did were against God. ²² But now God has made you his friends again. He did this through Christ's death in the body so that he might bring you into God's presence as people who are holy, with no wrong, and with nothing of which God can judge you guilty. ²³ This will happen if you continue strong and sure in your faith. You must not be moved away from the hope brought to you by the Good News that you heard. That same Good News has been told to everyone in the world...

- My goal is to continue strong in my faith so I will stand before Christ and be judged holy, with no wrong and blameless.

2 Timothy 4:5 But you should control yourself at all times, accept troubles, do the work of telling the Good News, and complete all the duties of a servant of God.

Mark 16:15 Jesus said to his followers, "Go everywhere in the world, and tell the Good News to everyone."

Ephesians 6:15 On your feet wear the Good News of peace to help you stand strong.

Acts 1:8 But when the Holy Spirit comes to you, you will receive power. You will be my witnesses—in Jerusalem, in all of Judea, in Samaria, and in every part of the world.

Isaiah 8:18a I am here, and with me are the children the Lord has given me...

- My goal is to stand before God's throne with many other souls surrounding me, and be able to say to Christ, "I am here, and with me are the children God has given me."
