The Power of Worship

Psalm 95:1-7 Come, let's sing for joy to the Lord. Let's shout praises to the Rock who saves us. [2] Let's come to him with thanksgiving. Let's sing songs to him, [3] because the Lord is the great God, the great King over all gods. [4] The deepest places on earth are his, and the highest mountains belong to him. [5] The sea is his because he made it, and he created the land with his own hands. [6] Come, let's worship him and bow down. Let's kneel before the Lord who made us, [7] because he is our God and we are the people he takes care of, the sheep that he tends.

Acts 16:25-34 About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing songs to God as the other prisoners listened. [26] Suddenly, there was a strong earthquake that shook the foundation of the jail. Then all the doors of the jail broke open, and all the prisoners were freed from their chains. [27] The jailer woke up and saw that the jail doors were open. Thinking that the prisoners had already escaped, he got his sword and was about to kill himself. [28] But Paul shouted, "Don't hurt yourself! We are all here." [29] The jailer told someone to bring a light. Then he ran inside and, shaking with fear, fell down before Paul and Silas. [30] He brought them outside and said, "Men, what must I do to be saved?" [31] They said to him, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved—you and all the people in your house." [32] So Paul and Silas told the message of the Lord to the jailer and all the people in his house. [33] At that hour of the night the jailer took Paul and Silas and washed their wounds. Then he and all his people were baptized immediately. [34] After this the jailer took Paul and Silas home and gave them food. He and his family were very happy because they now believed in God.
